DifferHome-Real estate listing platform - as a Backend Developer 26 June,2022
Developing a Pan-India platform enlisting real estate properties;enables users to purchase a range of real estate property based on their specification. Database is set-up along with login modules for admin which adds the properties to the database which is handled by the api created at the backend. Filters components are used to regulate the different parameters accordingly to user's choice. API is used for property's locations guided by map.

Software used: NodeJs,MongoDB.

EXPERIENCE

LoanKart - a Flipr hackathon project 6thMay-10th May,2022
A compatible & user-friendly P2P(peer -to-peer) lending platform. Efficient and regulated database for exclusive user's profile information along with signup details User can obtain loan directly from other users after the user have a verified profile. Database is based on MongoDb. NodeJs and Express used at the backend. ReactJs in the frontend. It is a team project which is completed in 96 hour (4 days). I worked as a backend and integrate the frontend part to the backend.
